

SORRY TO WORRY YOU, BUT THE WORLD'S FOOD SUPPLY Is From 25 per cent to 50 per cent Short IN ALMOST EVERY COMMODITY THAT'S WHY THE COST OF LIVING IS HIGH

And what's worse, it's very likely to go higher. In the first place, the United States, the greatest agricultural country in the world today, harvested short crops last year in almost everything, and added to this is the heavy demand for food products from foreign countries which are hardly producing at all.

ONLY ONE THING

Can reduce the high cost of living and that is a new crop. Only a small portion of this country can produce a new crop in the next few weeks and that portion can produce only a small amount of the total needed and of this winter growing section, INDIAN RIVER FARMS at Vero, Florida, can put its products on the market among the very first, for its growing season lasts practically all the year and it is nearer to the great markets than many other early winter producing sections.

WINTER GROWN PRODUCTS

Are always high priced and in this year of exceptional conditions, prices are bound to be abnormally high. From the consumer's viewpoint, this is not cheering but just suppose you were fortunate enough to be the producer of winter grown products and were looking forward to the biggest year you had ever had?

You can be the producer of winter grown potatoes, cabbage and other truck crops for high priced early spring markets, or oranges and grapefruit; you can raise cattle, hogs and poultry at the lowest possible cost in INDIAN RIVER FARMS at Vero, Florida.

ONE FARMER IN INDIAN RIVER FARMS HAS ALREADY GATHERED $225.00 WORTH OF LETTUCE FROM A FIFTH OF AN ACRE. ONE GROWER REFUSED $250.00 PER ACRE FOR HIS POTATO CROP AND ANOTHER REFUSED $300.00 PER ACRE FOR HIS WINTER GROWN POTATO CROP, AND NEITHER OF THESE CROPS ARE READY TO BE HARVESTED.

Call or write for further details regarding these all around, all the year around farming, fruit growing, trucking and cattle raising lands, INDIAN RIVER FARMS at Vero Florida, or rates and routes on our excursion leaving MARCH 6TH.

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join
The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

At Set Of Sun.
If we sit down at set of sun And count the things that we have done,
And, counting, find
One self-denying act, one word That eased the heart of him who heard,
One glance, most kind,
That fell like sunshine where it went,
Then we may count the day well spent.
But if thru all the livelong day We've eased no heart by aye or nay,

If through it all We've done no thing that we can trace,
That brought the sunshine to a face;
No act, most small,
That helped some soul and nothing lost, Then count that day as worse than
lost.

One active beech nut, given a chance will result in a forest. One little thought started right will go round the world and keep on its travels. It gets there by moving, not by sitting sulkily in the sawdust and wishing it were a plum pudding. Move on, Catch on. Hold fast as long as you can, and if you're knocked off, grab for the next car that comes along and you will get there. But don't start in the wrong direction. Do not start in the drunkard's grave, or you will be sure to get there. Do not start in to go it blind whenever some "Smart Alec" blows the horn for you to fall in, lest you fall in where it is deep and ever remain there. Be active or get out of the way, and in one year see how much better off in mind, body, and comforts you will be.

The first person to whom Christ appeared after the resurrection was a woman. During all the ages that have come since that first Easter morning, whenever there was a word to be spoken for the Master, a tender service to be performed in His name, a cup of cold water to be given to some wayfarer, or a prayer to be offered for some sin-sick soul, woman has always been the first on the scene.

Never be ashamed of your early surroundings because you are living in a more refined place at present. Do not be ashamed of your old father and mother when they come to your city to visit you because their manners are a little old-fashioned and try to smuggle them in and out of your house.
Call in your best friends and say to them "this is my father and my mother. If they had lived in your day and had had the advantage they would be as well up as you." Have you forgotten what a hard time your father and mother had in the early days of life, depriving themselves of the necessities of life in order to save and leave something for their children when they are ready to lay off their earthly toil.

Jesus called a little child to represent who should be the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. No long-faced elder of the church was brought, nor senseless member of the monastery, but a prattling child in all its innocence and mirth; and unless we are converted from our austere ways, and become in habits and tastes like unto a child, it is declared the door will be barred against us.

The sunshine of life is made up of very little beams that are bright all the time in the nursery, on the playground and in the schoolroom, there is room all the time for little acts of kindness, that cost nothing, but are worth more than gold and silver. To give up something when giving up will prevent unhappiness; to yield when persisting will chafe and fret rather than come against another; to take an ill word or a cross look rather than to resent it; these are the ways in which clouds and storms are kept off and a pleasant, smiling sunshine secured even in a humble home, among every poor people as well as in families in higher station.
Much that we term the miseries of life would be avoided by adopting this rule of conduct.

On our criticisms, of others, let us remember that we have faults which our friends have to excuse. How much would be left of us if all those who see inconsistencies in us should clip away from our character and reputation? It is an invariable rule that those who make the roughest work with the names of others are those who have themselves the most imperfections. The larger the beam in your own eye, the more anxious you are about the mote in somebody else's eye. Instead of going about town slandering this man's bad temper and the other man's falsity, and this woman's hypocrisy and that one's indiscretion, go home with the ten commandments as a monitor and make out a list of your own delinquencies.

A woman may be surrounded by all the luxuries that money can buy, and have the fawning friendship of people whose smiles only live in prosperity; but if she feels herself unloved and alone in her heart, the crown jewel in her diadem of happiness is lost, things lose their value and life becomes monotonous. The honest, tender love of two brave hearts who have started out, and are struggling to get a home for their little ones, and money enough to feed, clothe and educate them, makes life a thousand times more attractive and inspiring.

One Experience Convinced Me of its Value

"One of our salesmen demonstrated the value of the Long Distance Telephone to us.
He was at Huntsville, Ala., and upon his own responsibility put in Long Distance calls for fifteen merchants within a radius of several hundred miles.

"In less than one hour he had sold 2100 barrels of flour at a total cost to us of less than six dollars.

"Since then we have applied the Long Distance Bell Telephone to every feature of our business with most profitable results. The service is fine, the rates are reasonable and there is more satisfaction in one Long Distance Telephone talk than in half a dozen letters"
